How the Grand Fete Passed Away in the Crescest City.

Ah Sin, the Mysticke Krewe, and the Grand Dake Hilariously Mixed Up.

Special to the Appeal]

NEW ORLEANS, February 13. The festivities of Mardi Gras in this city to-day were of unusual interest. There were two hundred thousand people present as participants and Persia continues with unabated fury. spectators. There were, perhaps, two Many persons are dying daily. hundred Memphians in the city. The procession of the King of the Carnibegan the march at three o'clock.

While marching up St. Charles street the excitement was intense and the spectacle indescribable. The street was densely packed from Canal street to the city hall, and the balcowing and to the city hall, and the balconies and verandas were all crowded-having received extra supports to insure the safety of the occupants. The streets and houses on the line of march were handsomely decorated. The city hall struction and laying of a telegrap.io was decorated with flags, festoons of superb style, The excitement of the occasion was hightened by the presence of the Grand Duke, who witnessed the pa geant from the front of the city has and exchanged royal courtesies with the King of the Carnival. In the procession were many grotesque characters, the King himself being magnificently attired, and presented to King Victor Emanue wielding his scepter with a grace becoming so great a personage. To-night the Mysticke Kroze of Comus paraded. This peculiar institution of New Orleans, composed of many of the best citizens, makes a display by gaslight that is splendid, This procession made about the same line of march as that of the King in in the afternoon, and was also witnessed by the Grand Duke at the city hall, which was illuminated by a crescent of gas jets and many Chinese lanterns for the occasion. The city to night is devoted to hilsrity and amusement. Mask balls are in progress at the principal theaters and many other places. The Grand acciden is reported to mar the general enjoyment of the occasion. There were but few allegorical characters in the procession. Of these the best was the Heather Chinnel Ab Chin the Heathen Chinee, Ah Sin, with fifty-two celestials representing each card in the pack, and the motto, "Eachre us if you can." Another re-"Eachre us if you can." Another represented Grant with his brother-in-law on his back and placarded, "This ticket for 1872 | ske patented." Many Memphians will start home to-mor row, but it will be a week before they all get away, as the press of passenall get away, as the press of passengers will tax railroads and steamposts to their utmost capacity.

THE APPEAL FOR 1872. The circulation of the APPRAL is increase rapidly that our former facilities are mane nate to the work required. We are therefore a strained to order a double-cylinder He a for Mempals. In addition to this heavy esense we intend, at an early day, to present he Apprai to its readers in an entire new tress, greatly enlarged and otherwise in groved. The proposed improvements will one as about ten thousand dollars; but this outley is due to those who have so generously pairoulzed the paper, while it will be an incen-tive for increased support. Now is the time to subscribe for the Arreal for EG.. Those who intend to take the paper next year should remit at once, in order that their subscriptions may commence with the new jews, Great as the prosperity of the AFRA. has been for the last thirty years, we are itsolved that pust issues shall be exceeded ! varied excellence and interest by those of 187 a. The proceedings of congress, the preddentle election, and our own State elections, and many other impending questions, will combine to invest a newspaper in 1872, with pro-found interest. It will be the constant sim of the APPRAL to present an instructive pane rams of the world. Instead of emptying into its columns everything presented and being most thankful for that which is longerand stupidest, every department of the paper will be carefully edited and presented as kn. spitome of the world's doings. In a word, the APPEAL will aim to tell the news fairly, benestly and interestingly; to sid in all good outses; to expose shows and stimulate reform; to represent the most liberal thought and highest tandencies of the time; to we some all schemes that promise good; to exourage all human enterprises; to attimulate the love of knowledge, a taste for art and the culture of all the better parts of our nature o sustain good government and honest rulers and to condemn and upset the bad and to war upon sliques, esteries and "rings."

In view of the momentous issues bound up in the hidden mysteries of 1872, we expect a arge accession to our subscription list. We shall on talnly make the APPRAL deserving of a large patronage. Notwithstanding the high price of paper, composition and general expenses, the price of the AFFEAL is about the same as that charged before the war, when grexpenses were one-third less than how.
